5 - The Firkin Whisky Co.
FIRKIN : SINGLE CASK - SINGLE MALT
	FIRKIN RARE Highland Single Malt Scotch Whisky 8YO Ardmore - 48.9 abv - 8 YO - case 6 x 750	$730.00	$121.67		Usually peated malts from the Scottish islands tend to be quite challenging with oodles of peat and smoke. This peated single malt is unusual as its an Ardmore 2011 from the Highlands which has a less intense smoke & peat profile. 330 Bottles. Ardmore Distillery is in Aberdeenshire (origin of The Black Angus steak) and inland from the seaport of Aberdeen in the North East of Scotland. Partner this Ardmore dram with the soft sweetness of Sicilian Marsala in a hand-built custom cask. These use a combination of American first fill Bourbon & new French Limousin oak staves with a custom char. This Double Oak cask in combination with the "solto" sweetness of Marsala creates a special flavor profile. The result is a new character as befits the Italian influence from Sicily. Its quite simply Firkin Bellissimo... Sumptuous Peat... Single Cask Single Malt.

Softer and somewhat creamier, this Tullibardine dram is paired with a unique combination of 2 styles of Spanish Sherry, a nutty Amontillado and a rich Oloroso in a hand-built custom cask. These use a combination of American first fill Bourbon & new French Limousin oak staves with a custom char. This Double Oak cask regime in combination with the Spanish Sherries creates a special flavor profile. The result is a stunning new take on Tullibardine which is a great combination of creamy malt, nuttiness and richness. In a word, Lip-smacking delicious... Firkin 49 Single Cask Single Malt.

The Caol Ila distillery (pronounced Kel-Ila) on the north east tip of the island with majestic sea views, is one of the finest Islay distilleries. 330 Bottles. Fuse the peaty smokiness of a classic Caol Ila 2012 with the Muscat grape sweetness of Marsala and mature in a hand-built custom cask which uses a combination of American first fill Bourbon & new French Limousin oak staves with a custom char. This Double Oak cask in combination with the Marsala creates a special flavor profile - the original peat "full on character" is mellowed and softened over time resulting in a new take on a this classic Islay whisky. In a word, Refined Peat & Smoke... another Firkin Original... Single Cask Single Malt.

	FIRKIN TEN Highland Single Malt Scotch Whisky 10YO Royal Brackla - 48.9 abv - 10 YO - case 6 x 750	$730.00	$121.67		This is a classy journey. Begin with a barrel of 2008 from one of only 2 Royal Distilleries in Scotland, Royal Brackla in the Northern Highlands, close to Cawdor Castle made famous in Shakespeare's Macbeth. 330 Bottles. Both Royal & somewhat eccentric, as personified by company director Walter C. Newbigging. Clearly well connected as good old King Billy (William IV) gave them Royal status in 1838. Marry this classy Highland dram with the tangy, spicy richness of Madeira Wine and mature in a hand-built custom oak cask. These use a combination of American first fill Bourbon & new French Limousin oak staves with a custom char. This Double Oak cask in combination with the spicy richness of Madeira creates a special flavor profile. What emerges is rich, creamy and a tad spicy. As befits Royalty, this really is Bodacious Elegance... Firkin Royalty... Single Cask Single Malt.

					Czechoslovakia, occurring from 17 November to 29 December 1989. This became the end of 41 years of one-party rule. Even though the barley was 100% Czech and the water used in production was from the Bohemia region, the biggest struggle was the peat that originated from the Czech region. At the time, it was almost impossible to find a peat of the desired quality, therefore a Scottish peat was imported with great effort during closed trade times. PURE PROVENANCE - Whilst crafting Hammer Head, we use crystal clear water rich in iron and minerals from a Bohemian region, which positively influences the final liquid taste and overall experience in a way that only true whisky lovers will note. Much of the taste originates from our oak barrels, left to rest in a sleepy picturesque distillery. The stillness and fresh air in Pradlo, far away from the tumult of the city, enrich the flavour of Hammer Head. DISTILLERS - Back in 1989, Vaclav Sitner was our Master Distiller. At that same time, Kristina Demelova worked alongside Vaclav to learn about his craftsmanship and expertise. Today, Kristina Demelova has

	GLEN SCOTIA 25 YO - 46.0 abv - 25 YO - case 6 x 750	$1,540.00	$256.67		Limited Release, 315 bottles - From the once vibrant whisky producing region of Campbeltown, Glen Scotia is one of a handful of distilleries that remain in operation today. We present this powerful Scotch whisky after maturation in a fresh Pinot Noir wine cask. This coastal, maritime spirit was initially filled into a refill Sherry cask in 1991 to mellow the spirit. The Murray McDavid Whisky Creations Team then transferred the whisky into a vibrant, freshly emptied red wine barrique. This very special finishing cask had previously held Pinot Noir wine from the famous Burgundy wine region of France. Over a decade, this specially selected cask from the famed Domaine Leroy of Vosne-Romanée has developed rich cherry flavours, deep colour and an extraordinary bold character to this malt.

	CRAIGELLACHIE 8 YO - 46.0 abv - 8 YO - case 6 x 750	$412.00	$68.67		Limited Release, 712 bottles. - The Craigellachie Distillery is an unmissable sight, with its traditional pagoda and glass-walled stillhouse in the heart of Speyside. Proudly displayed are their handsome copper stills, easily seen from the outside, giving you an idea of the power that makes Scotch whisky. The unusually heavy Speyside spirit has been taken through an unusual and complicated maturation by the Murray McDavid Whisky Creations Team. Starting life in a refill American oak barrel, this rich Speyside single malt was split into three unique and unusually sized casks. 30-gallon casks from the Koval Distillery were seasoned with rich, flavoursome rum. Some of the Craigellachie spirit was then filled into these casks to further mature. One of Murray McDavid's uniquely coopered 'Coleburn Drums' (casks which resemble a bass drum) was also seasoned with 160 litres of rum before being filled with the remaining whisky. After a brief maturation in these unique casks, the spirit, which had developed a sweet, honied aroma, was married and bottled.

	BOWMORE 15YO - 46.0 abv - 15 YO - case 6 x 750	$1,290.00	$215.00		Limited Release - 935 bottles - This Bowmore was originally matured in a 500-litre sherry cask to give slow, gentle maturation. The European oak gives the spirit a soft oaky spiciness and dried fruit flavours. Founded in 1779, Bowmore is the oldest working distillery on the Isle of Islay. Its delicately peated, well-balanced spirit has been an inspiration for many a whisky lover for many years. This Bowmore single malt has been matured for its final four years in a fresh port pipe. After seven years maturing in the Sherry butt, the Murray McDavid Whisky Creations Team transferred the whisky into a freshly emptied first-fill Port wine cask, or 'pipe'. The rich, sweet, fruity Port gives additional depth of flavour and further increases the smoky character of this classic Islay peated malt.

	PEATSIDE 6YO - 46.0 abv - 6 YO - case 6 x 750	$372.00	$62.00		Bottled from 6 Casks, Limited Release - Peatside is a 'tea-spooned malt', 99.9% of one single malt blended with just a tiny drop of another. The origins of the spirit will, of course, remain a secret! The serendipity of blending gives rise to wonderful creations. Peatside is a vatting of single malts from unexpected origins, matured in American oak followed by freshly emptied Port and PX casks. This combination showcases the flavours shining from the barrels collected from around Europe. The initial maturation in a bourbon barrel gave a light sweetness to soften the peaty spirit. The Whisky Creations Team then split the 'Peatside' spirit into two different casks, one that had held port wine and the other, Pedro Ximénez Sherry. After nearly two years in the finishing casks, this unusual spirit has developed the perfect balance between smoke and oak.

	FETTERCAIN 19 YO - 46.0 abv - 19 YO - case 6 x 750	$1,030.00	$171.67		Limited Release, 296 bottles - After seventeen years maturing in a refill American oak cask, Fettercairn was selected by Murray McDavid's Whisky Creations Team for finishing in a fresh bourbon cask. The highly active American oak has given the Fettercairn spirit sweet vanilla and spicy notes. Set in the foothills of the Cairngorm Mountains, Fettercairn is a traditional distillery producing a full-bodied single malt. The picturesque distillery is one of the few active stills in the eastern Highlands of Scotland. This classic malt has been guided through a series of bourbon barrels. This showcases the unique character of the Fettercairn spirit, as well as the quality of the casks available at Murray McDavid's traditional Victorian dunnage warehouse at the Coleburn Distillery in Speyside.

	MORTLACH 19 YO - Cask Chateau Talbot Bordeaux - 1997 - 50.4 abv - 19 YO - case 6 x 750	$1,680.00	$280.00		Limited Release, 238 bottles - In 1823, Mortlach was the first licensed distillery in Dufftown and was built around the abbey which gives it its name. They distill a complicated 2.81 times which creates their signature robust and fruity expression. Mortlach is matured for nineteen years in a refill bourbon cask, which slowly adds complexity to the character of this unique Spyside whisky. It is further matured for two months in a European oak cask that had held Chateaux Talbot's famous Bordeaux Cru-classified red wine. The French red wine barrique was chosen especially by Murray McDavid's Whisky Creations Team to add fresh fruit flavours to this rich, full-bodied malt whisky.

	ORDHA MEAS 13YO - 46.0 abv - 13 YO - case 6 x 750	$300.00	$50.00		Bottled from 2 Casks, Limited Release 742 bottles - Òrdha Meas has been crafted from first-class single malt and single grain whiskies including Highland Park, Glenrothes, Glengoyne, Port Dundas and Cameronbridge. After marrying together, these spirits were left to rest in Sherry casks, at Murray McDavid's traditional dunnage warehouses at Coleburn Distillery. Òrdha Meas is a sweet, fruity, creamy blend of malt and grain whiskies from active and closed distilleries from across all five whisky producing regions of Scotland. A classic maturation, each spirit was initially aged separately in bourbon barrels and then blended after more than ten years in the warehouse. The Whisky Creations Team then used European oak sherry casks to mature whiskies together for a few more years. This allowed the malts and grains to integrate and work in harmony with one another. Òrdha Meas showcases the Whisky Creations Team's skill not only in the art of maturation, but also the art of blending.

	COINNICH 21YO - 46.0 abv - 21 YO - case 6 x 750	$700.00	$116.67		Limited Release, 239 bottles - This delightfully aromatic vatting is a coming together of eight eminent single malt whiskies from the five whisky regions of Scotland. After twenty-one years in oak, this blend of malts, including Highland Park and Laphroaig, has produced a great depth of flavour and bouquet. Coinnich contains whisky from all five whisky producing regions of Scotland. It is a 'coming together' of all the different flavours in the Scotch whisky universe. To create a well-balanced blended malt, it is very important to allow time for the malts to marry and develop together. This marriage of Island, Islay and Speyside malts has been mellowed in a refill American oak cask for over a decade and then transferred to a carefully selected first-fill bourbon barrel to develop sweet, vanilla and spicy notes, overlying the fruit and smokiness of these iconic single malts. The Coinnich showcases a 'coming together' of the Whisky Creations Team's skill in the Art of Maturation and the art of blending.
